One of the electrical appliances which will presently come into general re-electric motor is the electrical heater.

It dispenses with all dirt in the house, which can be turned off and on just when it is wanted. A large percentage of the heat from a stove goes up the chimney and is wasted, but as the electrical heater is right and handy, and can be moved from place to place, the advantage of its use can always be secured.

The African continent has been crossed sixteen times, twice before 1880, six times between that time and 1880, and eight times since 1880.

The round-top building between Cape Girardeau and Sprague's Basin, N. Y., recently destroyed by fire, was an old colonial structure, probably the oldest in the Mohawk valley, and is said to have been built in 1732.

CHARLES BROADWAY ROUSE, of New York, is one of the few business men in the country who pay their employees at the end of each day. The services of one extra clerk enable him to do this, and he says the system is satisfactory both to his employees and himself.

The new queen of the Sandwich Islands is Lilia Kamakaha Liliuokalani, a sister of the late king. She is 25 years old, was educated in a missionary school and is married to an American, Mr. John O. Dominis, who has held many important positions in Hawaii.

RABBI SOLOMON SCHINDLER, of Boston, has taken strong ground against the proposed new colored synagogue with Hebrews. He says that the community cannot support more than three million people, and the Russian exiles alone, numbering five million, would largely overpopulate it.

World's fair clubs are being organized in different parts of the country for the purpose of enabling the people to visit the great show. Each member contributes a small amount each month. By the time the fair opens a good round sum will be on hand to cover expenses.

The past winter will go on record as one of the most disastrous in the history of navigation. The loss of the Utopia with over four hundred persons at Gibraltar is the greatest of the season, but smaller catastrophes have been uncommonly numerous. Now comes the report that eleven vessels have been wrecked and fifty-four lives lost by hurricanes in the south seas.

PRESIDENT DUFFY, of the New York Central railroad, gets a salary of $75,000; President McCurdy, of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, $60,000; President of the Equitable, $50,000; President of the Union Trust Company, $50,000.

BOSTON has seventy millionaires.
Among the first capitalists of the town are the Ames family, who reside in North Boston. Among them, one of Boston's greatest merchants, left the largest estate ever administered upon in that city. It amounted to $22,000,000. Frederick L. Ames and Benjamin F. Ames, the two sons of the deceased, are the richest men in New England, each one being worth $20,000,000. Gen.
Butler ranks well up among the rich men of the Hub.

It is reported that whenever Lawrence Barrett played in Paterson, N. J., among the most interested of the audience was an old man with bent figure and bald head, whose face showed an unmistakable Celtic origin. He never applauded, but always seemed glad when the actor about him died.
Once when the testimonial to Barrett's skill was longest and most emphatic this old gentleman abruptly rose in his seat and exclaimed: "Arrah, do ye hear that, now? That's my son Larry."

A SINGULAR incident is related of two Georgia brothers, who were devotedly attached to each other and who had often expressed the desire that they might die together. At Gainesville, Ga., Walter Wood, in attempting to cross the Tombigbee river in a skiff, was drowned by his boat capsizing. On the same day and about the same time his brother, Julian Wood, who was working in a glass factory at Birmingham, Ala., was overcome by gas and died in a few minutes.

The spirit of St. Helen's church in the isle of Wight, which was built in the beginning of the last century, was suddenly afterwards struck by lightning, had, as was supposed, the large bell of its chime cracked, as the tone was very much muffled. The other day a church-warden happened to be in the belfry and through curiosity examined the bell.
He found that there was no crack in it, but a piece of wood broken from the chime was pressing against the edge and stopping the vibration. This being removed, the bell, after being muffled for 170 years, rang out merrily, to the astonishment of the inhabitants.

A BOSTON numismatist says that the finest coin collection in that city is that of Mr. Parmelee, a baker up in East Chester Park. He takes nothing but beans—Boston baked beans—and all the money he makes he puts into old coins. His collection is worth between $40,000 and $50,000. He had a complete set of American silver dollars—the only set in Boston. Next to Parmelee's collection, the finest one in Boston is that of Nathan Appleton, of Beacon street.
There are hundreds of collectors there, and the aggregate value of their coins is probably greater than in any city in this country outside of New York.

It is currently asserted that the relative heights of men and women in England are undergoing a change. Observation extending over a series of years has shown, it is declared, that the women are apparently growing taller and the men shorter. The cause was long considered a mystery, but at a recent London dinner it was unanimously agreed that the reason was the changing, the apparent elongation of women being the result of comparison. And it was further stated that tobacco did it.
Englishmen are incessant smokers, and begin the practice at so early an age that their growth is much retarded.

TWENTY-NINE THIRTIETHS of all the diamond mines in the world are controlled by one company, whose capitalization is $10,000,000. In the mines of Kimberly, where the diamonds are, one carat is found in every sixteen hundred pounds of dirt taken out.
